The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle,

The Builder and Supporte of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of ingredients identical with those who constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, which Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, re-establishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace and wash out tuberculous matter and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, or tax on irregular habits, Bronchitis, Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the lungs, even in the most alarming cases.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St Vitas Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful ally next to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name, no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. I. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Price $1.50 per Bottle, six for $7.50.

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

Yesterday the Thomas M. Reed, the biggest ship of the season, went into the water from the yard of Arthur Sewall, Esq., in Bath.

The M. C. railroad directors are talking of laying steel rails over their road between Gardiner and Augusta.

The man who was approached from the rear by a goat and went over a six-foot wall and rooted up the ground for three rods, on being revived told the doctor that he hadn't at the time of the accident the remotest idea that he was standing on a railroad track.

Longfellow looks upon Sunday as the "golden clasp that binds together the volumes of the week;" but to one who never indulges in romantic flights of imagination it is simply an ecstatic season when you can lie abed late in the morning, and have something extra for dinner.

A young lady who was asked how she liked the touch of her new music teacher, blushed deeply and made no reply. She afterwards told a friend that she didn't see what made people ask such impertinent questions.

A Philadelphia youth who committed suicide twenty years ago because a lovely being gave him the mitten, has been heard from through a medium. He says that when he gazes through the misty veil which divides life and death, and sees his old flame now with her fourteen children lying around loose, while she cleans house, he gets mad enough at his folly to commit suicide again, and his greatest punishment is the reflection that he can't.

The following from the Haverhill Gazette illustrates finely the humorous side of the telephone business: "A citizen in the suburbs, whose telephone is on a circuit with several others, independent of the Central office, was about two weeks learning that all loud conversation anywhere near the instrument could be heard by any one listening near the tube; but he did learn it, and it developed his organ of caution. The other night, after parties on the line had caught the words, 'I'm boss of this house—don't ease me—I won't do it—who cares—I say you did,'—a bland voice came over the line, saying 'If any of you have been listening, let me explain that my dear wife and myself are practicing our parts in a play by amateurs.'"

A smart young man asked a gentleman from Cape Cod, "What's the difference between you and a clam?" thinking that the Cape Codder would say he didn't know, and then the young man would pity him for not being able to see any difference between himself and a clam, but the thing didn't work. The Codder took the young man and brushed a path across the street with him, and then, after crowding him into an empty fish barrel and ramming him out again, said: "A clam wouldn't be playing with you this way. That's the difference 'twixt me and a clam." The young man had no more questions to ask.

STATE NEWS.

Hancock.

Mr. Samuel Rumill has sold his dwelling house and farm at Norwood's Cove and moved, with his family, to Boothbay. The house now closed will soon be opened and occupied by the present owner, Mr. Lyman Harper.

A distressing event occurred at South West Harbor, Friday afternoon. A little girl three and a half years old, only child of Hiram Huston, was drowned in a well. Her mother was moving from the home of her foster parents to a house near by. The child, who had been running back and forth between the two houses, was missed for a few minutes and found in the well.

The sad news was received in Ellsworth, Monday, of the drowning of Mr. John H. Lafflo, Mr. Lafflo was in charge of a crew of river drivers on the Magalloway river in New Hampshire, and was employed by the Berlin Mills Co., of Berlin Falls. He is about 27 years of age and leaves a wife and child in Ellsworth. No particulars of the sad accident have been received as yet. The dispatch stated that the body had not been recovered. Mr. Lafflo leaves a large circle of friends who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in their great affliction.—Ellsworth American.

The Ellsworth Free Baptist Quarterly Meeting will hold its next session in the Free Baptist Vestry at West Ellsworth, June 18 and 19. Conference, Friday, at 1 o'clock.

Mr. J. R. Long, of East Bluehill, clipped 106½ lbs. of wool from 14 sheep, the heaviest fleece weighing 9¾ lbs., and the lightest 6 lbs. Nine of the flock have produced 14 lambs, one having triplets.

Somerset.

Whooping cough is raging in Fairfield village, and a number of children have been very ill with congestion and lung fever.

The Somerset county lumbermen, who were becoming anxious about obtaining their logs this season on account of a jam forming in the Long Falls, Dead River, are rejoiced to know that the jam has been broken, and that in all probability there will be no further hindrance, as the logs are nearly all out of the small streams.

Business in the several manufactories in Skowhegan is starting up quite actively, with encouraging prospects of improvement as the season advances. The paper mill of R. E. Lyon & Co. is finishing about one ton a day with its small force of seven men and three girls, day and night crew.

The woolen factory is busy working up large orders for manufactured goods.

Messrs. Denham & Bachelor, tanners, have made some heavy purchases in wool this season. Their invoices have amounted to upwards 10,000 pounds. Prices have fallen within the past eight days. The market price is now quoted at 35 cents per pound. Mr. Bailey's oil carpeting works are doing a heavy business. Every department has a full force, and large shipments are sent in weekly. The outlook for a prosperous season is very encouraging, still the western fever continues to rage.

The diphtheria has again made its appearance among us. Last week two daughters, only children of Hiram and Nora Spaulding, died after a few hours of intense suffering. The death of the second occurred within a few hours of that of the first. They were interred in one grave.

Sagadahoc.

Bath has two ships on stocks, five ships in the stream, and thirty schooners and brigs in the river. Morse's schooner is nearing completion.

Mr. Geo. Mitchell of Bath, of this year's graduating class in Dartmouth, has been given the English oration, is assistant in the department of microscopy and astronomy and has got out a patent scientific instrument.

Kennedy, Mr. C. F. Peterson's assistant on the latter's milk farm in West Bath, returned home Tuesday morning. He was in a high fever. The man states that when left in the barn on Thursday night a cloud seemed to settle about him. Something urged him to run. He ran from the barn and knew nothing further until Tuesday night when he came to his senses to find himself up to his waist in water beneath a bridge on the road over which a team had just passed. A dog was standing near him. He came to the banks and found he could not move. Tuesday night he slept on the bank, and Wed. morning walked and crept to Mr. Peterson's house, where he now lies sick. It is almost miraculous that he was not drowned. Kennedy is a fine, jovial, handsome and moral young man, is immensely liked and cannot tell any of the events transpiring from Thursday until Tuesday evening. The doctor pronounces it a case of temporary insanity.

TIMBER LAND

AT AUCTION!

Township No. 2, Range 3 west of Bingham's Kennebec Purchase, in the County of Franklin, known as Long Plantation, will be sold at public auction at the Augusta House, in Augusta, on Wednesday, the 16th day of June, A. D. 1880 at 11 o'clock A. M.

As the land is well timbered and well watered lying on both sides of the South Branch of Dead River, it offers a rare opportunity to purchasers.

FOR PRESIDENT:

JAMES G. BLAINE.

REDUCED FARES TO THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The Executive Committee of the BLAINE CLUB of MAINE, having perfected their arrangements for an Excursion to Chicago to attend the Republican National Convention, make the following announcement for the benefit of those Republicans who may desire to attend and aid in nominating our honored Senator, JAMES G. BLAINE, as candidate for President at the coming election:

A special train over the Eastern Railroad will leave Portland, Thursday, May 27th, on the arrival of the morning train from Bangor, arriving in Boston in season for tea. The party will leave Boston for Chicago direct the same evening by special train, with Wagner sleeping cars, over the Boston and Albany, New York Central, Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroads, taking breakfast Friday morning at Syracuse, dinner at East Buffalo, and tea at Cleveland, arriving at CHICAGO Saturday morning. Ample hotel accommodations have been engaged for 250 persons at the Gardiner and Mattison Houses, and rooms will be assigned on the train to the excursionists, avoiding confusion on their arrival. Hotel bills $2.50 and $3 per day.

Fare from PORTLAND to CHICAGO and return, $20. Wagner Sleeping Cars to Chicago, $5.50. Excursionists taken to and from Portland from stations on Maine Central R. R. at one fare, tickets to be procured at all stations. Persons desiring to go can have their berths in sleeping cars assigned, by enclosing $5.50 to the Treasurer of the Club, H. S. OSGOOD, Portland. Those wishing to secure rooms should address the Secretary, J. SWETT ROWE, Augusta, as early as possible.

The committee have succeeded in arranging that the tickets to Chicago and back shall be good for fifteen days from May 27th. The train will run by the way of Niagara Falls, and arrangements will be made to make a stop there of three hours to view the objects of interest.

All Republicans are cordially invited to join the excursion.

J. R. BODWELL, President.

J. SWETT ROWE, Secretary.

Augusta, April 23, 1880.

National Republican Convention.

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago on Wednesday, the 2d day of June next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice-President at the next election. Republicans and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia to represent them in the Convention.

J. D. CAMERON,
Chairman National Committee.

THOMAS B. KEOGH, Secretary.

THE MAINE EXCURSION TO CHICAGO.

The deep interest felt by the people of Maine in the action of the National Republican Convention at Chicago, strongly increases as the time for its assembling approaches, and will cause many of our most prominent citizens to join the excursion of the Maine Blaine Club which will start May 27. Already quite a number of leading Republicans of this city, of Dexter, Dover and other places in the vicinity have indicated their purpose to attend, and in addition to the officers of the Club and the Maine Delegates and Alternates, Governor Davis has accepted an invitation to attend the Convention as the guest of the Blaine Club, and will be accompanied by the members of his Staff. The members of the Executive Council and Congressmen Reed, Frye and Lindsey, will also join the excursion, and so will Mayor Stott, of Lowell, Mass., a stalwart Blaine-man. It is also hoped that Senator Hamlin will be able to arrange his engagements so as to go along with the party.

The splendid prospect of the nomination of our distinguished fellow-citizen, JAMES G. BLAINE, for President of the United States, should make it a matter of pride for Maine Republicans to be fully represented by a large volunteer delegation of our best men at Chicago, and the importance of a large attendance from this State will be apparent to all. Aside from the importance of the great assemblage of the foremost Republicans of the Nation, which will make the coming Convention memorable in the history of the country, the excursion will be a delightful one, the route affording a grand view of points of interest across the country, including a stop at Niagara Falls.

Ample arrangements for sleeping cars out and back and for hotel accommodations have been made, as will be seen by the announcement elsewhere. As Bangor is always at the front when there is work to be done, a goodly number of our most earnest Republicans will go to speak for the Queen City at Chicago.

RETRENCHMENT AGAIN!

The entire unfairness of the Commercial is shown in its discussion of the "Reform and Retrenchment" business, by parading the receipts of the State Treasury in certain years, and comparing the same with the cash remaining in the treasury at the close of the year; and it undertakes by that method to show the amount of bills incurred during that year! Nothing could be more delusive. You may as well compare the weather reports of 1878 with those of 1879, for the purpose of getting a sure prediction of what the weather will be in 1880. The expenditures of any one year cannot be ascertained by giving the amount of cash in the treasury at any one time. No true estimate can be made of the expenditures of the Fusion government of 1879 until all the bills are settled, but the Commercial undertakes to get at the figures now. There are bills now pending before the Governor and Council, amounting to many thousands of dollars, contracted under the Fusion Government, which have not yet come into the account. We cannot yet tell their exact amount. We only know that up to within a few weeks the bills of the Fusionists amounted to $87,843 more than the amount provided by their appropriation.

The table presented in the Commercial yesterday, in which it undertakes to show that the Fusionists decreased the liabilities of the State, is false, in that it does not give the entire liabilities, the Treasurer's report being made up before all the bills accruing under the Fusion government had come in. And so the fact is that the appropriation, which they made, in 1879, lacked $87,843 of paying the current expenditures of 1879. That does not come at all in the Commercial's calculations or figures.

Ex-Governor Dingley, a gentleman familiar with State figures, in a recent number of his paper, in referring to this same subject, remarks:

In 1879 under fusion rule the State appropriations were $1,329,583. In 1880 under Republican rule, the appropriations are $1,368,957. Increase, 39,366. But $30,000 appropriated this year is to pay counting-out expenses, which belonged to last year's expenditures. Deducting this sum from appropriations for 1880, and adding it to appropriations for 1879, and the figures for the two years stand thus: In 1879 appropriations $1,359,585; in 1880 appropriations $1,338,957, or less under Republican than under fusion rule.

Gov. Dingley's figures in regard to the counting-out conspiracy are too low by $10,000. This is to be added to the expenditures of 1879; but notwithstanding this, added to the extraordinary expenditures caused by the valuation commission, State Prison bills, re-clothing of the militia, etc., the Republicans this year are able to get along with an appropriation $20,000 less than that of the Fusion Legislature of 1879; and had it not been for the extraordinary expenditures which we have from time to time enumerated, the total expenditures would have been less than that of 1879 by $120,000. The Commercial may parade its misleading tables of figures, but we think that the people of Maine will understand that a saving by a Republican Legislature of $120,000 is in the interests of "retrenchment and reform."

THE FRUITS OF DEMOCRACY.

New York city is in the hands of the pure and unadulterated democracy. Look at the result. Here is what Alderman Marshall said about New York at the dinner of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening: "What is it," he asked, "that gives us streets reeking with filth and nastiness and loaded with every species of abominations and incumbrances—streets which, in spite of the exertions of the upright and capable Commissioner of Public Works, are, for the most part, as difficult and painful to drive over as an ordinary corduroy road out West? Bad government! What is it that condemns our honest and industrious poor to live in tenement-houses filled with foul odors, and in which their children sicken and die? Again, bad government. What is it that brings a building, constructed for public uses, crashing down about the heads of those who have trusted in its safety—crushing out of existence several valuable lives, and carrying mourning and life-long sorrow to many hearts and homes? I answer, bad government. What is that which throws away valuable franchises, accords to individuals what should be for the public good, imposes upon us burdens almost too heavy to be borne and wastes our substance in the employment of useless officers and sinecurists, whose occupation for the most part is the services which they render their political leaders and patrons? I answer again, bad government."

THE THIRD TERM BOLT AT CHICAGO.

THE ILLINOIS MACHINE SMASHED BY THE COOK COUNTY CONVENTION.

[Special Chicago Cor. N. Y. Herald.]

The action of the third term faction in the Cook County Convention, Monday, was a confession of the disastrous defeat which they had sustained on Saturday. Of the 191 delegates elected on Saturday, every one was present. There was no contest save in the Twelfth ward, where the seats of a part of the delegation were in dispute. When the Convention was called to order an attempt was made by the Chairman of the County Central Committee to appoint the presiding officer. This was properly objected to and Mr. Elliot Anthony was elected chairman by more than a two-thirds majority.

BOLT OF THE THIRD TERMERS.

A Committee on Credentials was then appointed, whereupon the third term faction, at this preliminary stage of the proceedings left the hall, every one of them, to the number of 58 of the 191 members of the Convention. They abandoned the Convention by prearrangement, the leaders having determined upon that course on Saturday night, when they discovered that they had been disastrously defeated. After bolting from the Convention they marched off to the headquarters at the Palmer House. There was not the slightest cause for such a proceeding that any State Convention ever held would listen to for a moment. The Committee on Credentials had not acted or reported. The question of contested seats had not been reached. Nothing had been done in regard to appointing delegates. They had made no demand on the Convention for any number of third term delegates. They had been refused nothing, for the reason that the Convention was still in a formative or inchoate condition and was gradually and by regular steps evolving itself into working order. They ran away before they had preferred a grievance or knew what ultimately might be done. They abandoned their seats before they were denied anything, before they had asked for anything, before the Convention had even ascertained who its own members were and who were entitled to seats. A roll of the members remaining showed the presence of the full delegations from twelve wards and a third of the delegation from the Twelfth ward, the others being in contest, and from twenty-eight of the thirty-one townships.

WEAKNESS OF THE BOLTERS.

The bolters had carried out the delegates from five wards and the fractional contestants of one ward and three townships. The numerical strength of the Convention and of the bolters may be thus compared: Members remaining in their seats, 132; bolting members, 58; leaving 1 seats under contest to be subsequently decided by the Convention. But adding the contested seats to the other bolters and the rump convention only numbered 59 in total, out of 191 delegates. After the Convention had acted on the report of the Committee on Credentials and accorded to the bolters all the seats they claimed, except a part of the Twelfth ward, where they were elected by notorious and shameful fraud, the roll was called on Presidential preferences, the plan being to accord to each candidate a pro rata number of delegates to Springfield. Each delegate, as his name was called, disclosed his preference for President with the following results: Washburne, 90½; Blaine, 33½; the ex-President, 1. Total, 115. These figures express the real and only reason why the third termers left the Convention. They were in a minority in the whole Convention of three to one, and, refusing to submit, fled from the defeat which they had challenged and invited. Five wards and three townships out of eighteen wards and thirty-one townships bolted the County Convention, and that before taking a vote or waiting for any action on any question. This proceeding was taken under the direction of Long Jones, the chairman of the State Committee, who promised that he would control the State Convention and have the minority faction, the bolters, admitted to that body, to the exclusion of the regular and overwhelming majority.

THE REGULAR CONVENTION.

The Convention, after giving these men an opportunity to return and to reconsider their reckless action, then proceeded to ascertain the choice of each delegate, and when the whole number was called proceeded to appoint delegates to the State Convention, divided pro rata, according to the expressed wishes of the members of the Convention. There was only one third termer present. The other fifty-eight third termers had gone out and over to the Palmer House. They cannot complain that they received no pro rata share of the State delegates, because they had absconded in order to appoint an entire delegation of ninety-two third termers.

A newspaper reporter yesterday had an interview with Hon. Elihu B. Washburne, in Portland, in which Mr. Washburne emphatically states that his candidacy is out of the question and that he is for Grant first, last and all the time. He repudiates all combinations with the other candidates and says the thrusting of his name before the public as a candidate was without reason or justification, as he had declared repeatedly, both orally and in writing that he would not be a candidate under any circumstances or conditions whatever, and that he had spent the last six months in furthering Grant's candidacy. He further said that the suggestions of certain interested parties that he is guilty of duplicity towards Grant are utterly false and so known by the parties who put them in circulation; that the events in Chicago since he left ten days ago were a greater surprise to him than to any one else. He adds that considering the intense political excitement in Illinois he had rather be mending his fences on his Maine homestead than be mixed up in the turmoil at Chicago.

THE ILLINOIS CONTEST.

[Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.]

The situation in Illinois is described here by Illinois men who know all the parties to the struggle as full of danger to the Republican party. The third term bolters at Chicago were led and controlled by such men as Emory Storrs, who figured disgracefully in the Babcock and Whiskey Ring trials; Leonard, Swett and Munn, men of antecedents similar to those of Storrs, and the anti-third term majority have, it is said, many of the best citizens of Chicago among them. Letters and despatches received here show that the feeling on both sides is intensely bitter, the third termers being bent at all hazards on success and their opponents being animated to resistance, not only by hostility to the third term but by indignation and disgust at seeing the kind of men who aim to control the party.

COURSE OF THE BOLTERS.

It is believed here that the bolters will fill up their delegation so as to cover the whole of Chicago, and that their delegation will be admitted at Springfield and then be strong enough to secure the State delegation to the ex-President. But it is also believed that if this is attempted it will be resisted to the utmost, and that if the third termers should carry their point that no influences will be able to prevent a break in the party in Illinois, which would give the State to the Democrats.

FEEBLE TENURE OF THE REPUBLICANS.

It will be remembered that the Republicans now hold the State only by a plurality. A union of all the elements opposed to them would defeat them, and if to this were added a split in their own party their defeat would be certain. The Illinois quarrel is not unlikely to make its appearance in the National Convention, which may be called on to decide between two contesting State delegations. It is thought here in some quarters that it is the purpose of the third term leaders, now that they see their movement so strongly opposed, to prepare as much trouble for the Chicago convention as possible.

DEMOCRATS DISAPPOINTED.

On the whole the Democrats are the people most seriously disappointed at the probable failure of the third term movement. They have counted on the ex-President's nomination all along with great confidence as giving them their best hopes of success. "We shall make an unexceptionable ticket," said a leading Democratic representative to your correspondent this evening, "and my hope is still that the ex-President will be nominated at Chicago. He is the easiest man for us to beat, and, after all, the best place to definitely and for a century to come and settle this third term business is at the polls. Therefore I hope and also believe that Messrs. Conkling, Cameron and Logan will stick."

A WOMAN KILLS A WILDCAT.

For several days past it has been reported that a wildcat was roaming the woods in the neighborhood of Shandaken in the Catskill region, New York. Two or three persons had seen the animal, but, being unarmed, did not dare venture to attack him. On Saturday afternoon last, as the four-year-old child of Charles Schoonmaker, who lives on the mountain border-ing on Greene county, was playing near the house, its mother heard it scream for help. Running from the house she found that the child was being attacked by some wild animal. Seizing a heavy stick, she went to the child's assistance. The wildcat (for such it was), with eyes sparkling like fire, jumped for the mother and fastened its claws in one of her arms. Being a strong and courageous woman, she managed to hurl the animal from her, and, by a few well-directed blows, to end its life. It measured over five feet from its head to tip of tail, and weighed twenty-seven pounds. The child was badly scratched, and but for the prompt arrival of its mother, would have been killed.

RELATION OF RELIGION TO COMMERCE.

At the recent banquet of the Chamber of Commerce in New York, the eloquent and witty Robert Collyer responded to the toast: "Religion; its relation to commerce."

He said the clergy were only formerly required to ask a blessing and then go out, but it is a grand thing that you wish us to stay, and you now give us a toast to respond to away toward the end of the meeting, so that we must sit it through. Those who fear a curtain lecture when they get home, say, Well, my dear, Brother Storrs was there, and Brother Cuyler was there, and Brother Collyer, that new man they have got in New York, was there, and they staid pretty well through, and there is no great harm done when they were there. (Laughter.) It is a good thing to give us ministers a good dinner. An old minister on the prairies, away below Chicago, used to say that it was not to be expected that they could preach as good a sermon as those in Chicago, because they were not as well fed. (Laughter.) No man who lives on pork, said he, can expound the Gospel properly. (Laughter.) And I think there was something in it. When Banks came out to Chicago to take the presidency of the Illinois Central Railroad, they got up a great dinner and invited me, and I remember what a good time we had; and the sermon that I wrote, which seemed to me to strike fire, I wrote that week. It was published and printed, and did a great deal of good, and I never told the secret until to-night. Another reason why ministers should be invited to these dinners is illustrated by the story of the caterer in Boston, who, when he was preparing a dinner for a number of clergymen, was asked why he made such a spread. His answer was: "Those pious folks eat awful." I think, therefore, that the Chamber of Commerce would gain credit to itself and do a world of good by having a banquet and inviting thereto every blessed minister in New York. (Laughter.)

A FALSE REPORT.

[From the Piscataquis Observer.]

We have seen an item going the rounds of the Democratic press, to the effect that Mr. S. O. Brown, of Dover, is the "dark horse" candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in this district. It first appeared in the Bangor Commercial and has been copied quite extensively with more or less addition and comment.

We are in a position to know that Mr. Brown is NOT a candidate, and that the use of his name in connection with the nomination is wholly unauthorized, and not a little annoying and distasteful to him under the circumstances.

The mere beginning of emancipation in Cuba would be a great event if everything of that kind had not been so completely overshadowed by the vast and memorable triumph of abolition in the United States. The working out of the system in Cuba remains to be seen. We hope it may prove to be a reality, and a successful and permanent one, the more especially as the economical influence of Cuban slavery has been hostile to the prosperity of the southern agriculture and to the rights of our own freedmen. It is to be hoped that Spanish cupidity will not perpetuate slavery in Cuba under a sham emancipation.

Much indignation is felt in Illinois at the action of the leaders of the Grant movement, and the Chicago Journal, hitherto strongly for Grant, calls upon Grant to withdraw. The Grant men expect the delegates from the bolting Convention to be admitted to the State Convention, which they will thus be able to control. The Blaine and Washburne delegates are equally confident. Counting Cook County, 255, Grant delegates have been elected, 243 Blaine delegates, and 93 Washburne delegates; 91 remain to be chosen. The total number in the State Convention is 692, and 347 votes will be necessary for a majority. Taking the districts into consideration, Grant stands at a disadvantage, he having only two certainly, while Blaine is sure of seven and is likely to secure eight others, leaving one district which Grant will probably get.

A quaint story of Stonewall Jackson's devotion is related by the ex-Confederate Chaplain J. W. Jones. It was on the march to Culpepper Court House that the General's negro servant Jim told some officers who were inquiring about "Stonewall's" habits: "Yes; the General is a great man for praying at all times. But when I see him get up a great many times in the night to pray then I know there is going to be something to pay; and I go straight and pack his haversack, because I know he will call for it in the mornin'."

A lady in Boston, like many other mothers, treats the ailings of her family homœopathically and has a large mahogany case full of bottles of sugar-coated pellets and a medical book. Some time ago her little boy was so unusually quiet as to indicate that he was in mischief, and it was discovered that the youngster had emptied a bottle or two of the "sugar-plums" and swallowed them. When caught, he was methodically "getting away" with the remainder. Horror-stricken, the mother sent for her favorite homœopathic physician, who, gravely administering a pellet, observed, "I think that will make him all right. If not, let him take one every four hours."

The gang of counting-out strikers who have seized entire control of the Greenback and Democratic organizations in Maine, have changed their minds about their State Conventions which were to have been held simultaneously at Bangor and Portland. They have concluded that there will be only one crowd for both, so that the Democratic Convention call is changed to Bangor for the same day with the Greenback Convention. As the Garcelon gang of Tabulators have assumed complete control they might as well put out their ticket without the farce of a Siamese convention.

The following despatch was received by the National Blaine Club Wednesday evening:

DETROIT, Mich., May 12, 1880.

Wonderful convention; all one way; Blaine resolution passed unanimously; delegation first-class men, all pledged; complete triumph. EUGENE HALE.

"What's this unit rule the politicians talk about?" asked Jones of Colonel Solon yesterday. "It's this way," said the Colonel. "If you approve of the unit rule, you vote to have every man vote the same way every time. It's mighty convenient, as yer'll see if you ever get on a delegation. I was on one whenst an' we had the unit rule resolution sold, so when I sez, 'I vote the delegation tall suthin,' of course the all had to vote the same way, an' nobody could dissent, an' I don't b'live they would nuther if the rule hadn't been in force. But it makes it more solid yer see, an' yer chairman can have the 'hull sum put down on the slate easier'n he could if we war all divided an' I was takin' drinks with every other candidate. 'Sides yer see, one candidate can't come in an' ask jest one or two up fur a drink, fur it wouldn't do any good, becoz of the unit rule; so he'll have to ask the whole caboodle an' no favor."

THE OLD STORY.

CAUSE OF CASHIER BOOTHBY'S SUICIDE.

A Defaulter of $30,000.

The Crime Extending over a Period Of Eight Years!

AUGUSTA, May 13. A thorough investigation into the affairs of the First National Bank of Augusta has revealed the fact that the late cashier, Israel Boothby, who suicided February 3d, was a defaulter for over $30,000. His embezzlements extend over a series of eight years. Mr. Boothby's bond was for $20,000. The bank has a large reserve fund and is financially all right. What Mr. Boothby did with so much money is merely conjectured, but is not known definitely.

Election of Delegates to Chicago.

BELFAST, May 13. At the Republican convention to-day for that portion of the Fifth Congressional District west of the Penobscot River, John S. Case of Rockland, was elected delegate to Chicago, and John Peirce, of Winterport, as alternate.

Launching of a Fine Ship.

BATH, May 13. Arthur Sewall & Co. launched to-day a fine ship of nineteen hundred and fifty tons, named the Thomas M. Reed, owned by the builders. Thomas M. Reed and Capt. A. E. Work, who commands her.

Damage to a Maine Vessel.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., May 13. The three-masted schooner Lizzie Dewey, of Lubec, from Cadiz for this port, experienced rough weather, and stove in her bulwarks and rudder head.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS—Second Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 13.

The Senate took up the bill abolishing all tolls on the Louisville & Portland canal. The bill was passed, and the Kellogg resolutions were taken up. Mr. Hampton spoke upon the subject.

Mr. Hampton said all his sympathies were with the contestant in this case and with the State of Louisiana, which had suffered so great a wrong. But the Senate had no power to redress that wrong. Time, the great healer, could alone assuage her wounds.

Mr. Carpenter argued against Hill's statement that after the Senate had seated a person it would have to unseat him, if the State recognized a new Legislature. This doctrine would make the States, and not the Senate, the judge of, who shall be Senators.

After Mr. Carpenter's remarks the Senate went into executive session and afterwards adjourned.

House.

The "Moonshine" amendment relative to illicit distilling was adopted. Pending further debate the committee rose.

A communication from the Secretary of the Interior recommending an appropriation of $57,000 for salaries in the land office was referred.

A Memorial of the Press Association of Georgia in reference to the oppressive tariff on pulp, etc., was referred.

The minority report on the subject of the disfranchisement in Rhode Island, was presented.

Resolution directing the Secretary of the Interior to report the facts relative to the rejection of certain bids for wagons, alleged to be lower than those for which the award was made, was adopted.

The bill appropriating $900,000 to supply deficiencies in the pensions' appropriation was referred to the Committee on Appropriations. Mr. Springer took the floor to reply to a speech recently made by Mr. Orth.

Mr. Orth replied in a tone of great bitterness to what he called the "extraordinary diatribe of the gentleman from Illinois," and said that Springer had for years pursued him with the malignity of a political and personal enemy, and said he might on some future occasion make further exposure of Springer's fractions. Mr. Springer called him to order, and defied him to make known the exposure he threatened. Springer then dismissed the subject with contemptuous remarks that there was nothing in Orth's speech that needed reply.

The House went into committee of the whole on the legislative appropriation bill. The amendment striking out the appropriation for the payment of persons informing upon and detecting the violations of the internal revenue laws, was rejected. Having concluded the consideration of 40 of the 80 pages of the bill, the committee rose and the House took a recess until the evening session, for the consideration of the reports from the committee on Indian affairs.

Evening Session.

After considering the two Indian bills the House took a recess till 11 o'clock to-morrow.

NEW YORK STATE.

The Village of Stuyvesant, N. Y., Destroyed—Loss $300,000.

HUDSON, May 13. The village of Stuyvesant was burned this morning. Loss over $300,000. The fire caught in the storehouse of the New York & Catskill Steamship Co. Among the buildings burned were the Post Office, the house of the New Jersey Ice Co., the Railroad depot, Clapp's Hotel the Stuyvesant iron foundry, St. Mary's church and all the buildings on both sides of the railroad track, covering a radius of over a square mile. Among the fine residences destroyed was that of Senator Wendover. A tramp giving the name of James Smith has been arrested charged with causing the fire. Loss $300,000; insured $100,000.

FOREST FIRES.

New Outbreak of the Fire.

ATCO, N. J., May 13. The fire which yesterday surrounded and last night menaced this village, changed its course this morning and is now burning furiously to the eastward.

FARMINGDALE, N. J., May 13. A new outbreak of the forest fires is causing much alarm in this neighborhood. Thousands of acres of valuable timber land have been destroyed.

MANCHESTER, May 13. Fires of much magnitude are reported burning along the coast.

ALTOONA, May 13. Fire is burning steadily through Clearfield region, destroying considerable timber land.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 13. The loss by forest fires in this county is $200,000. In Galloway township 30 buildings were destroyed. There is great desolation in Great Republic.

OIL FIRES IN PENNSYLVANIA.

The Danger Past.

BRADFORD, May 13. Fires among the wells in the neighborhood of Dukes Centre have been subdued. The 25,000 barrel tank of Mitchell & Jones was still burning at noon. Rather formidable fires broke out this morning near Coleville and Bordell, but a large force of men fought it bravely and it is now under control. Fires still prevail in some sections of Tram Hollow, but the greatest danger thereabouts is regarded as past.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

CINCINNATI, May 13. A special says the town of West Liberty, Ohio, suffered this afternoon from a disastrous fire, which swept nearly half the town, destroying 35 business places; loss estimated at $30,000.

OPPOSITION TO GRANT.

Thurlow Weed Believes that Grant Will Withdraw.

NEW YORK, May 13. Delegates from the Republican Central Campaign club to oppose Grant at Chicago met to-night. A letter from Thurlow Weed was read expressing the belief that Grant would withdraw. Seventy-two delegates and 30 alternates will go to Chicago.

WASHINGTON.

Report of Committee on Election Frauds—No Intimidation or Politican Misconduct on the Part of Republicans.

The minority report of the Senate committee on alleged election frauds was to-day submitted to the Senate in regard to the alleged intimidation of the votes in Massachusetts and Rhode Island. The minority deny that one single allegation of fraud, misconduct "civilized" or bulldozing or intimidation, or attempted intimidation or politican misconduct of any kind, on the part of any Republican or any employer or manufacturer of any person of any party, either in Massachusetts or Rhode Island, was proven before the committee. The conclusions of the majority are not in accordance with the facts; not only were none of the charges proven, but on the contrary so utterly were they exploded by the intrinsic weight of the evidence before the committee that no impartial man who reads the printed evidence can contradict the assertion.

Adjournment Fixed.

The Ways and Means to-day fixed the date of adjournment May 31. The Agricultural appropriation bill was agreed upon by the committee on agriculture. It appropriates $213,000.

The Northern Pacific Railroad.

WASHINGTON, May 13. The Quartermaster-General and General Sherman have submitted a report in response to the House resolution calling for information as to the probable saving to the Government by the construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Both say a large saving to the Government would result beside greatly increased facilities for transportation and the establishment of posts, and strongly favor the extension of the road.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Effects of Democratic "Economy,"—The People in Darkness.

BOSTON, May 13. The lack of funds with which to continue the supply of gas and water for the Post Office and Sub-Treasury buildings resulted to-day in seriously crippling the working in these departments, particularly in the Post Office. The gas was turned off this morning and the weather being cloudy work had to be partially suspended. At night all work will close in the Post Office, and as there will be a large accumulation of mails very very serious inconvenience will result.

A Deckload of Ice Gone.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., May 13. Schooner Keren Happuch, from Kennebec for Boston, with ice, put into this port with the loss of deck load.

Suicide.

HOLYOKE, May 13. Joseph Cross, aged 75, committed suicide by hanging.

Investigation of the State Prison.

BOSTON, May 13. Gov. Long and Council visited Concord to-day and began an investigation into the charges of mismanagement of the State Prison. Two convicts were examined, both of whom alleged cruel treatment by the prison officials. The hearing was adjourned till to-morrow.

Light Without the Help of the Government.

BOSTON, May 13. The clerks in the post-office to-night performed their duties by the aid of locomotive head lights, loaned by the railroad companies, tallow candles and lanterns. The Postmasters of Newport and New Bedford, have accepted the offers from the local gas companies offering to furnish gas at their own risk.

POLITICAL.

Massachusetts Delegates.

HAVERHILL, May 13. At the Congressional Convention the delegates elected are for Edmunds, first choice, and Sherman second.

The Vermont Greenbackers.

MONTPELIER, May 13. The Greenbackers to the number of 50 assembled in State Convention to-day to appoint delegates to the National Convention. General Stannard was chosen President. The usual platform was adopted. C. F. Clough, Fletcher Tarbell, Jno. J. Burgess and C. C. Martin were chosen delegates at large.

Illinois Delegates.

CHICAGO, May 13. Stevenson county sends 8 Grant delegates to the State Convention; Pulaski, Franklin and Hardin counties elected Grant delegates to the State Convention.

Florida Nominations.

GAINESVILLE, May 13. The State Republican Convention nominated Hon. S. B. Conover for Governor and Gen. Wm. Ledwith, Lieut.-Governor.

THE LOYAL LEAGUE.

A Mass Meeting of Union Veterans.

CHICAGO, May 13. A call for a mass meeting of Union veterans is issued, inviting all who fought in the late civil war and who believe that the success of the Republican party in the approaching Presidential election will best secure the best results of the victory which the nation won, and who intend loyally to support the Presidential candidate of that party to assemble in mass convention at Chicago June 1st, 1880, at 10 o'clock.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Strike at Blackburn.

LONDON, May 13. A large proportion of the factory operators of Blackburn left employment yesterday. It is doubtful whether the strike will become general, as public opinion is altogether opposed to it. At a number of the mills the operatives have decided to work at old rates, but some employers have refused to allow them to do this, while two or three masters have offered to grant an increase of five per cent.

About 12,000 weavers at Blackburn struck yesterday and the greater part of the remainder will probably quit work to-day.

Bradlaugh Rejected.

The special committee to which was referred the case of Charles Bradlaugh, will on the reassembling of the Commons, report adversely on his claim to affirm instead of taking the oath. Whether Bradlaugh takes the oath or not the ultimate effect of this decision will probably be that the rule of precedure with regard to qualifying members will be modified.

LONDON, May 13. Elliot will not participate in the international regatta at Providence, June 17, on account of illness.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 13. It is understood that Gen. Todleben will be appointed Governor General of Warsaw.

BLACKBURN, May 13. 48,807 looms have stopped here and 1,968 operatives are working at unchanged wages. Most of the spinning and carding machinery has been stopped and 25,000 operatives are idle.

LONDON, May 13. The Daily News says the Cabinet Council to-day will have, it is believed, a very serious question to decide. Forster, Chief Secretary of Ireland, is said to be disposed to recommend the renewal of coercive legislation in regard to Ireland.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

The general conference at Cincinnati, Ohio, elected Rev. Dr. J. M. Reid and Rev. C. H. Fowler as missionary secretaries.

Brandt Hummell and Wise Raber, the murders, were hung in the jailyard in Lebanon, Pa., yesterday.

The shoddy and flocks mills of G. E. Kenney & Co., at West Marion, Mass., were burned last night. Loss $20,000; well insured.

Edwin Hoyt was hung at 11:38 A. M., yesterday, at Bridgeport, Conn. His death was almost instantaneous.

The Manhattan club, New York, gave an elegant reception to Judge Nathan Clifford Wednesday night.

The factories of Minill's Manufacturing Company, in Fon du Lac, Wisconsin, were burned yesterday. Loss $125,000. One hundred and fifty men are thrown out of work.

The State troops have been sent from New Orleans to suppress the labor riots at Plaquemine Parish.

At Corpus Christi (Tex.) yesterday, Horace Burr assaulted his wife and sister-in-law, fatally shot his mother-in-law and then killed himself.

The White Water Valley coffin establishment was burned yesterday. One hundred men are thrown out of employment.

Ex-Senator Bayard is much weaker and is apparently sinking rapidly.

Further hearing in Kearney's case, appertaining to the records of the lower court, will be given at Sacramento, Cal., on Monday.

Sam'l R. Glen, of New York, a well known veteran journalist, is dead; aged 65.

The dog show in New York closed last night. The first prize was taken by Sir Wm. Verner of London, Henry Daggett jr. of Boston, E. W. Daggett of Boston, and Robert Hume of Virginia.

The coal miners at Carbonville, Ill., are on a strike and mines are all idle. The owners decline to pay the increase.

THE WEATHER.

WAR DEP'T, OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, Washington, D. C., May 14—(1 A. M.)

Indications.

For New England: Rising barometer; cooler northerly winds; partly cloudy weather, and occasional rain.

ACCIDENTS. While handling a colt Jas. L. Rideout, of Garland, was kicked on his hand so that the flesh was torn, making a painful wound which will prevent his doing any work for some time. Mr. Libbens Oak, of the same place, fell from an apple tree that he was trimming and broke his collar bone. He was also otherwise injured by the shock.

The Maine Blaine Club have secured a large number of rooms in Chicago, at the Matteson House, a first class hotel directly opposite the Exposition Building in which the National Convention is to be held. This excellent house is kept by J. E. Woodcock and M. A. Long the former being a Calais man and both of the proprietors red-hot Blaine men.

THE DEXTER MILLS. A correspondent of the Lewiston Journal writes: Those proprietors of the Dexter Mills, who reside in Boston and vicinity, came to Dexter by special train Wednesday morning, and organized a corporation under the general law. The corporate name is the Dexter Woolen Mills. R. W. Robinson, Boston, President; R. S. Russell, Boston, Treasurer; A. F. Bradbury, Dexter, Secretary; Capital stock is $220,000. A. F. Bradbury, Esq., will continue as agent.

LEAP YEAR DANCE. There was a very pleasant leap year dance at Music Hall last evening. The attendance was very large, and it being the last dance of the season all were prepared to enjoy the occasion accordingly. The programme was well arranged, the floor politely managed by Miss Cassie Gallagher, assisted by a corps of six young ladies, and the music by Andrews' Orchestra was excellent. At intermission refreshments were served in the gallery, after which the dancing was continued until a late hour.

LECTURE THIS EVENING. This evening Mrs. Barton, of Lawrence, Mass., will lecture in City Hall under the auspices of the Woman's Crusade. Mrs. Barton is an eloquent speaker and being very familar with the temperance cause a most interesting lecture may be expected. There will be a short praise meeting at half-past seven o'clock and the Seminary Quartette have kindly consented to be present. All those who have Gospel Hymns, number three, are requested to take them to the hall. The lecture is free and a collection will be taken at the close.

MEMORIAL DAY. We clip the following item from the Dover Observer: The committee of the G. A. R. appointed to engaged a speaker for Memorial Day, are in correspondence with Major John W. Myrick of Augusta, and it is hoped he will accept. Major Myrick was a gallant officer, and is an eloquent speaker, and as he was an officer under our gallant Colonel Douty, after whom the Post is named, it will be eminently fitting that he should deliver the address the present year, the first of the organization of the Post.

CITY OF RICHMOND. The favorite steamer City of Richmond has been fitted up in fine style for the coming season. Fourteen new state rooms have been added, and all the rooms have been furnished with the latest and best patterns of spring beds. New carpets, chairs and sofas have also been put into the saloons, and the entire boat has been newly painted, and put in first-class order for the accommodation of her many patrons. The Richmond will be put on to the Portland and Bar Harbor route about the first of June, with the same corps of popular officers she had last year. Both boat and officers will be much missed by the traveling public on the former route of the steamer.—Age.

SUDDEN DEATH. Mr. Patrick Golden died very suddenly at his home yesterday morning. He has been in poor health for some time, but was out Wednesday, slept well during the night and was about the house as usual yesterday morning. After eating his breakfast he went up stairs and in a few minutes his wife heard him cough and spoke to him several times, but received no response. She then hurried up stairs and in a few seconds her son heard her scream for assistance, but when he reached the room Mr. Golden was dead. The deceased was seventy-six years old and well known in this city where he has resided for a long time. Heart disease was the immediate cause of his death.

PITTSFIELD ITEMS. Our correspondent writes: Next Friday morning the musical talent of Pittsfield will give a concert at the Universalist church. After the concert supper will be served in the church vestry by the ladies of the Society.——The class of '80 at the M. C. Institute have engaged Andrews' Band of Bangor for the anniversary. They will also have a concert given by this band in connection with a male quartette, which will probably be from Bangor, and some good soprano, whom they have not yet fully decided upon.——Gov. Davis will deliver the oration here on Decoration Day, as was stated some time since by your correspondent.——Cool weather has prevailed for several days.

THE STATE PRISON. The Augusta Journal says: Hon. S. J. Chadbourne arrived in Augusta on the eight o'clock train Wednesday evening. He accompanied the Governor and Council on their visit to the State Prison, Tuesday. That institution was thoroughly inspected in all its departments, and the Council are in unit in commending it as a model prison. Warden Morse gives excellent satisfaction. Several hearings were given convicts who were clamorous for a pardon or shortening of sentence. All the inmates unite in saying that they are well-used, and are not subjected to unnecessary or unusually vigorous punishment. The workshops are in full blast, and turn out a superior grade of products. The harnesses command a ready sale, and they are equal to the best manufactured in private workshops.

BOOK SALE. Loverings' gift book sale on Main street, attracts a large number of our citizens, and those connected with the establishment informed a WHIG reporter that they have disposed of many volumes since they opened Wednesday afternoon. The books are displayed on shelves all around the store so that a person can select any volume they desire, after which it is handed to one of the clerks, who takes it to the rear of the store, informs the man there whether the purchaser is a male or female, and he picks out a suitable present. Since they have opened a gold watch, numerous gold rings with stone settings, China sets, a diamond ring and other valuable articles have been given away. Last evening a well-known grocer walked off with a very large oil painting. The sale continues several days.

The buildings of Franklin Pillsbury at Howland Point were burned Tuesday afternoon. Most of the household goods were saved. The buildings were insured in the Penobscot Mutual.

The Trustees of Foxcroft Academy voted at a recent meeting to have a re-union of the scholars who have ever attended that institution of learning, some time during the month of next August.

Frank Dyer, the man that Officer McCoy left at the Franklin House Wednesday night, started for St. John on foot at an early hour yesterday morning. He started on his long tramp without waiting for breakfast.

Mr. Gilman Clark returned home this week from New Hampshire. He made the distance to and from that State on foot. Mr. Clark is a somewhat noted pedestrian, and on one occasion he walked from this place to some town in the State of Georgia.—Dover Observer.

McAdam Junction, at mid-day, is now a scene of considerable bustle. It is not unusual for seven separate railway trains to be there at one time, and there are five every day. Both the N. B. & C. road and that of the St. John and Maine appear to be doing a much larger business than last year.

TROUTING PARTY. A gentleman at Moosehead Lake writes: A party of eight went out Wednesday morning and caught eighty splendid trout, the regular spotted beauties. We have them every morning for breakfast. Mr. Hersey and party left for the head of the lake Wednesday morning. The party here consists of J. B. Mayo and son, Charles Wyman and David Champbell of Sangerville; Dr. J. F. Babcock of Bangor; George Fairgraves of Skowhegan, W. C. Darrah and R. Quimby, Esq., of the De Witt House, Lewiston.

AN UNFORTUNATE HORSE TRADE. Last night Officer Walker and a man named Daley started out in pursuit of a man named Davis, who had defrauded the latter. It seems that Davis came to the city and traded horses with Daley, receiving a certain sum of money to boot. He represented that he owned his horse unencumbered, but on Wednesday another man called on Daley and took the horse, proving that Davis had purchased the horse of him and had only made one small payment on the animal. This of course left Daley without a horse and as he is a poor man we hope that the officer will find Davis and get the old horse back again.

PERSONAL. The many friends of W. F. Crawford, Esq., of Brunswick, were very agreeably surprised yesterday at his unexpected arrival in this city on the Boston boat. It will be remembered that Mr. Crawford was very seriously injured in the Seabrook disaster, several years ago, while he was connected with the railway mail service. Since then he has been a great sufferer, having been obliged to lie perfectly still a great part of the time, on account of the injury to his spine. Some months since he went to New York where he has been under the care of eminent surgeons, who have treated him so successfully that he is now able to travel, a portion of his body being incased in a plaster jacket, which removes all weight from his spine. We add our congratulations to those of his other friends here, and trust that he is now on the road to a speedy and permanent recovery. In a few days Mr. Crawford starts for Bloomington, Ill., where he is about to connect himself with a daily paper.

THE INSANE ASYLUM. A meeting of the building committee of the trustees of the Insane Asylum was held Tuesday. F. H. Fassett, Esq., the Portland architect, conferred with the committee, and brought plans and specifications for the new building to be erected from the accumulated funds and income of the hospital, not to exceed $18,000 in cost. The new building is to be used for the milder cases of insanity among the female patients, and it is to be built of brick, three stories in height, and 120x46 feet. It will be located, east of the northeast wing of the main building, contiguous to the kitchen building, and almost directly opposite the chapel building on the west side, where the less violent male patients are now confined. The committee have decided to ask for proposals. Work will probably not be begun until July. ——Farm work is progressing finely. Some twenty acres of swail are yearly turned under. In this way the fertility of the farm is kept up and increased. About forty-five acres in all are put under the plow.

THE STODDARD LECTURES.

A Brilliant Close of a Successful Course.

The fourth and last lecture of the Stoddard course was given at Norombega Hall, last evening, to an audience fully up in numbers and character to the audiences of previous lectures. He begun his lecture by interesting information concerning Russian Nihilism, as to what it is, and how it is treated by the Czar. The government of Russia, he said, is a mighty despotism, rotten and corrupt. The condition of the emancipated serfs is fearful; they are ground down under the millstone of debt by land taxes. They are kept in gross ignorance, 95 per cent. not being able to read and write. Poor Poland is ground to powder under the heels of the Pope, its tongue torn out by its very roots, as liberty of speech and press is not allowed. Russia is a crushed nation of discontented millions. There is no free speech, no liberty of press or of conscience. For heresy, in refusing to be forced, into the Greek church, men and women are sent to the icy solitudes of Siberia. At one time the prisons in Moscow alone contained 8,110, the most of these political prisoners, thrown in by the secret police, without a trial, and obliged to endure sufferings so intense that death was far preferable. In the midst of these sufferings, no star of liberty appears. These oppressed people, goaded on by their sufferings, and through hatred of Russian tyranny, have formed these communities of Nihilists. It is the natural outgrowth of their miserable condition, and the organization should not be regarded in the light of our advancing civilization, but viewed in the framework of their dark surroundings. Nihilism, with the watchword of its members, "Land and Liberty," be regarded as containing the seeds of a great national revolution against the oppression of the Czar.

The lights were then turned off, and the audience were led willing captives to Mr. Stoddard's eloquence and beautiful stereoscopic views, to the sights and scenes of Moscow, a city so closely connected with the destiny of the first Napoleon. Its magnificent shrines and temples and palaces were shown and described. Several of the colored views were exquisitely beautiful, as showing the effects of the summer's sun upon the golden domes, minarets and towers of the fair city. The whole ended with several grand views of the burning of Moscow in 1812, the torch being borne from house to house and from temple to shrine by the devoted inhabitants, on the approach of Napoleon's army.

Mr. Stoddard is to be congratulated on the very marked success of his present course of lectures. They have added to the admiration the community had for his genius and eloquence, and furnished a fund of instruction and entertainment that has been appreciated by the best minds in the city.

Chas. H. Worthen vs. The Grand Trunk Railroad.

In this action to recover damages for personal injuries received by the plaintiff by a collision of trains at Detroit Junction, a verdict was rendered early in the present term of the Supreme Court in Boston in favor of the plaintiff for the sum of $45,000, that being the third trial of the case. A motion for a new trial was made by the defendant, and was argued Tuesday by John Read in behalf of the defendant, and B. F. Butler for the plaintiff.

At the conclusion of the arguments Judge Lord said that counsel would hardly expect a decision from him at the moment, but that there were one or two suggestions which he wished to make for their consideration. It was quite clear to him that the case was one of negligence on the part of the defendant. During the last five miles before reaching the station the train must have run in five minutes. There was reckless management of the train. It was conclusively proved that they were racing improperly. If there were brakemen, they did not respond to the call, and the air brakes gave out.

Upon the question whether the plaintiff was in an improper place, there had been trials before three juries, and the three juries had all found that he was in a proper place. He thought that the verdict of $18,000 at the first trial was a judicious verdict in amount, but it was important to hold the jury to the true rules of law, and the verdict was set aside upon rulings made by him reported by the full court. Then it was tried again, and the result was the same, and the third time it was the same. It having been found by three juries that the plaintiff was in a place where he had a right to be, he should feel very reluctant to set aside the verdict.

Chief Justice Shaw said, in a case referred to by counsel, that after there had been three verdicts the court ought not further to interfere. The question of damages was, however, one that troubled him exceedingly, and he would say that if he interfered at all it would be only upon the question of damages. If the parties had anything further to suggest upon that question, he would like to hear them, but he should not disturb the verdict except upon the question of damages.

AMUSEMENTS.

Haverly's Minstrels To-night.

Haverly's troupe of Genuine Colored Minstrels will arrive in this city this morning, and to-night will appear at Norombega Hall in a programme replete with melody and fun. The band connected with the troupe will make a street parade and drill at noon. There is sure to be a large crowd to-night, and those who wish to avoid the rush at the door, will do well to secure their seats during the day at Bogbee's. The Philadelphia North American says:

"The troupe made a hit at the outset, captivated the audience, and carried the people hilariously through the evening, without an offensive word or act, and without the slightest slip to mar the pleasure of the grand entertainment."

Lotta.

The inimitable Lotta commenced her New England tour at New Haven Monday night to an audience completely packing the Opera House. She appears in Portland Saturday night (her second visit this season) and the whole house is sold. The sale of tickets here is enormous, and the prospect now is that every seat will be sold before the doors are opened next Monday evening.

Notes.

Remember the matinee to-morrow afternoon by Haverly's Genuine Colored Minstrels, for the especial accommodation of ladies and children. Prices 25 and 50 cents.

The Boston Museum Co. commence their New England tour on the 17th, appearing in Bangor the 26th. They will appear in Belfast on the 27th, under the management of the Ruskin Club.

White Robes! White Robes!

For a long time, no sweeter or better collection of music for SUNDAY SCHOOLS has appeared. If we consider the Hymns, we find the best and most original thoughts expressed in pure poetry, of good lyrical character. SUNDAY Such phrases as "Pitying Savior, look with blessing," "Trust Him ever," "The better years begin," "Only a little while," "Precious love," "Ere the sun goes down," "The Eden bless," and "A home, weary pilgrim," taken almost at random from its pages, indicate its tenderness and beauty. SCHOOLS! There are 125 songs, all good ones. WHITE ROBES will be mailed to any address for 30 cts (stamps). By A. J. Abbey and M. J. Munger. Price 30 cts, or $3 per doz.

TEMPERANCE JEWELS. (35cts, or $3.60 per doz.)
TEMPERANCE LIGHT. (12cts, or $10 per hund.)
These are extra good Temperance Song Books, differing in price and size, but not in quality. Temperance Jewels is by J. H. Tenney and Rev. E. A. Hoffman, and Temperance Light is by Geo. C. Hugg and M. E. Servoss.

THE SUDDS NATIONAL SCHOOL For the Reed Organ. By W. F. SUDDS. $2.50.
Mr. S. is well known as one of our best composers for the Pianoforte. His new School contains a great deal of fine music, and a good instructive course, and has the recommendation of a moderate price.
